Model UN conference held at Good Shepherd

DC CORRESPONDENT
OOTY, SEPT. 20

It was a perfect setting of the UN general assembly in the school auditorium at Good Shepherd International School (GSIS) here with students posing as delegates from various countries and taking part in the proceedings of the model UN conference.

The conference, held for three days, was to signify the role of the UN, and its importance in the global scenario, thus helping the young minds to experience the taste of UN session.

Students addressed a number of global issues, challenges and concerns such as human rights concerns of Burundi, question of Syria and Yemen, employability and education of the youth at the Model UN Conference, said Dr P.C. Thomas, Principal, GSIS.

The theme of the model UN Conference was, "Recognition, Reconciliation, Restoration towards world peace".

Committees such as Disarmament and International Security, Economic and Financial Council, Social, Humanitarian and Cultural Committee, Special Political and Decolonization Committee, Economic & Social Council, UN Human Rights Council, Environmental Commission, Youth Assembly and Security Council were formed to hold discussion on various subjects.
