

TIMES OF INDIA – 20 September, 2016

City school organises model UN conference

The Good Shepherd Model United Nations Conference was conducted at the Good Shepherd International School from September 15 to 17. The students addressed a number of global issues like human rights concerns of Burundi, challenges of ICT, question of Syria and Yemen and employability and education of youth. The conference's theme was recognition, reconciliation and restoration towards world peace. The opening ceremony was held on September 15. The chief of guest was former ambassador of India and former secretary, ministry of external affairs, M Ganapathi.

CATCHING EM YOUNG: Students participating in a model UN conference organised at the Good Shepherd International School