Ooty residential school wins 2 intl awards

DC CORRESPONDENT
OOTY, SEPT. 28

The Good Shepherd International School (GSIS) here has been conferred with the two awards, in the international school category, by the 'Education World India School Ranking 2015'.

These awards have come as a feather in the cap of this school of international repute, which has made tremendous strides in the field of education over the past three decades to carve out a niche for itself in the hills here in school education and residential schools.

A release from the GSIS and the Nilgiris district said that the school has made Tamil Nadu State proud by being adjudged the best 'International School' in India for co-curricular education, infrastructure and pastoral care by the 'Education World India School ranking 2015'.

Apart from this, the school has also been declared as the second best International School in India and the first in Tamil Nadu, it noted.

The awards and certificates were received by Dr P.C. Thomas, Principal, Mrs Elsamma Thomas, Senior vice president, Mrs Julie Pradeesh, vice president and vice principal of GSIS at a function held in New Delhi last Saturday.
