

TIMES OF INDIA

28TH SEPTEMBER 2015

Good Shepherd wins best int'l school award

Udhagamandalam: The Good Shepherd International School in Ooty has been declared the best international school in India for co-curricular, infrastructure and pastoral care by the Educational World India School ranking 2015, at New Delhi. Apart from this, the school has also been declared the second best international residential school in India and first in Tamil Nadu. Spread over an area of 70 acres, the Good Shepherd International

The school has also been declared second best international residential school in India and first in Tamil Nadu

School is located at M Palada near Ooty in the Nilgiris. The certificates were handed over to the school in a ceremony conducted by Educational World in New Delhi on Saturday. Dr P C Thomas, founder of the school and Elsamma Thomas attended the function and received the awards. TNN