Ooty GSIS bags 'Best Residential School' award

DC CORRESPONDENT
OOTY, SEPT. 25

The famous Good Shepherd International School (GSIS) here has been adjudged as the top international residential school in India in a recently concluded survey. 'C fore', a well-known Delhi-based market research and opinion polls agency on behalf of Education World, the leading education magazine of India, carried out the survey.

More than a thousand of India's most high-profile schools were surveyed. The parameters included infrastructure provision and maintenance, co-curricular activities, pastoral care, individual attention to students and life skill education and conflict management.

Dr P. C. Thomas, founder and principal of GSIS was also conferred the 'Lifetime Achievement' award by the same magazine. Both awards were received at a function held in New Delhi recently.

Dr.P.C.Thomas, Principal of GSIS-Ooty, receives the award from Education-World for GSIS being adjudged as the best residential school in India, in Delhi recently.
