

THE HINDU

14 FEBRUARY 2018

Poster design and presentation contest

Students from 11 schools take part

STAFF REPORTER
UDHAGAMANDALAM

A poster design and presentation competition was organised by The Rotaract Club of Good Shepherd Finishing School on Friday.

Topic

The posters designed on the topic - health, hygiene and sanitation in the Nilgiris drew participants from 11 schools across the district - Crescent Castle Public School, Nizam British International School, Nilgiri Matriculation Higher Secondary School, Lovedale, Oxford Continental School, Ooty, Riverside Public School, Kotagiri, Rex Senior Higher Secondary School, Unique Public School, Fernhill, Woodside School, JSS International School, St. Hilda's School and Good Shepherd International School.

The winning students presented their posters at the competition, held at the Good Shepherd Finishing School.

The president of Rotary Club of Nilgiris West, Geetha Sreenivasan, who was the chief guest for the event presented the awards and certificates to the winning team - Prithika Shri Ganesh and Nanditha Kannan of JSS International School.

Also present were secretary of Rotary Club of Nilgiris West Dr. Meenakshi Venkatraman; charter president of the Rotary Club of Nilgiris West and founder principal of Good Shepherd Finishing School Elsamma Thomas; Rotaract president Sukhjot Kaur, Rotaract secretary Priyanka Inani and Dr P.C. Thomas, past Rotary International Director and founder of Good Shepherd Institutions.