

DECCAN CHRONICLE

18 SEPTEMBER 2018

STUDENTS CONDUCT MODEL UN ASSEMBLY

Ooty: It was a perfect setting of the model UN general assembly in the school auditorium at the famed Good Shepherd International School here with students assuming the role of delegates from various countries and taking part in the Good Shepherd Model United Nations Conference.

The GSMUN helped students to discuss a number of global issues and challenges. The theme of the GSMUN was,

"Recognising and countering the devolution of mankind".

The students formed ten committees - Disarmament and International Security (DISEC), Economic and Financial Council (ECO-FIN), Social, Humanitarian and Cultural Committee (SOCHUM), Special Political and Decolonization Committee (SPEC-POL), United Nations Human Rights Council, United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime (UN-ODC), Environmental Commission, Security Council (SC), Press and Administration / IT committee and discussed various issues.

While Lt. Gen. Amrik Singh, Commandant, Defence Services Staff College at Wellington delivered the inaugural address, noted journalist Col. Ajai Shukla gave the valedictory address.

Dr P.C. Thomas, principal of the school, also reportedly spoke on the occasion.