These results highlight the combined effort and commitment of the whole school community towards the achievement of the goal. This sweet success could not be savoured without the help and support provided by you dear parents! Your presence and entente cordiale plays a key role in this success. The incessant training and boost provided by the staff along with the guaranteed support by the whole school community has proven that unity is strength and defeat is none. It was a mission. To achieve this mission sacrifices were made. Ultimately the goal was achieved. We also thank the Almighty for providing us with the fruits of our hard work. We anticipate more support in our future endeavours too.
