The GSIS Team extends their sincerest compliments and hearty congratulations to every one of these young Shepherdians. We hope you would always remember the GSIS ideal of ranging onwards and forward, never looking back, persisting in the pursuit of excellence in all your future endeavours to become lifelong learners, successful scholars and contributing members of the world community.

Incessant training, continuous monitoring, differentiated instruction, individual attention, care and guidance have led to this kind of performance by our students and teachers.

Our parents' presence and entente cordiale plays a key role in the way the school functions. We extend our thanks to you, and anticipate your full and complete support in all our future endeavours. To do our best was our mission. To achieve this mission, numerous sacrifices were made. Therefore, we also thank the Almighty for all His graces and bounty without which we believe no human mission ever can reach its fruition.
